

Induction Ceremony

“You are now about to share in the privilege of membership in an AMBUCS chapter.

“We charge that you seek to promote through faithful attendance and hearty cooperation the life, the growth, the service of this chapter in this community.”

“Now on behalf of AMBUCS, and on behalf of the Southwest Chapter, I welcome you into a circle which faces inward for friendship, and outward for real service to your community.”

“I know you will wear with pride, this pin which is indicative of your acceptance of our mission: Helping people with disabilities achieve independent lifestyles.”

Please raise your right hand and repeat after me:

"I pledge myself—to strive in every way—to be a loyal and faithful member—of the Southwest chapter of AMBUCS—and to discharge my responsibilities—as a member—to the best of my ability.”
